Diana Santa Maria on Trial Team during the October 2017 BCBA Bench & Bar Convention Mock Trial

Fort Lauderdale, FL— October 20, 2017 — Diana Santa Maria joined other renowned Trial Practitioners, as part of the Plaintiff's Trial Team for the 2017 Broward County Bench and Bar Convention Mock Trial.

The Broward County Bar Association's 2017 Bench and Bar Convention featured a judiciary panel plenary, lunch with Justice C. Alan Lawson, and Medical Marijuana and Trial Tracks. Diana served on the Plaintiff's Trial Team as a Mock Trial attorney, along with judges and attorneys from Dade, Broward, and Palm Beach counties.

For the past five years, Diana has served as one of the 17th Circuit representatives on the Florida Bar's Board of Governors. She is a member of ABOTA (American Board of Trial Advocates) and is a past President of its Ft. Lauderdale Chapter.

As former member of the Broward County Board of Directors, Diana has also served on the Florida Justice Association's (formerly the Academy of Florida Trial Lawyers') Board of Directors and on the Florida Supreme Court's Judicial Nominating Commission, a gubernatorial appointment.
